

23RD ANNUAL MEETING AND WORKSHOP
OF THE ARIZONA RIPARIAN COUNCIL
APRIL 16-18, 2009
THE LODGE AT CLIFF CASTLE, CAMP VERDE, AZ

Thursday, April 16
Plenary Session

Invasive Species and the Economics of Doing Business - Charles Perrings, Ph.D., Arizona State University

Managing Invasive Species in Fossil Creek - Jane Marks, Ph.D., Northern Arizona University

Invasive Plants in the Agua Fria and Verde Riparian Systems - Jeff Schalau, Arizona Cooperative Extension Yavapai County

Tamarisk - Can it be Managed? - Ed Glenn, Ph.D., University of Arizona

Strategies for Dealing with Invasive Species through the Arizona Invasive Species Management Plan - Brian McGrew, Arizona Department of Agriculture

Panel Discussion and Audience Q&A

General Technical Session

Presentations on riparian-related issues.

Thursday Evening Dinner Speaker

Matt Chew, Ph.D., Arizona State University will present Tamarisk: From Good (and Pretty) to Bad and Ugly

Friday/ Saturday, April 17-18

Workshop

Classroom instruction Friday

Feld exercise Saturday (two sites along the Verde)

Instructors :

John Brock, Ph.D., Emeritus Professor, Arizona State University-Polytechnic

Kelly Steele, Ph.D., Associate Professor, Arizona State University-Polytechnic

Francis (Ed) Northam, Ph.D., Weed Biologist with the University of Arizona Cooperative Extension Office

Doug Green, President of the Phoenix Chapter, Arizona Native Plant Society

Who's Invading

Our Riparian

Space?

For more information go to
<http://azriparian.org/2009/2009Spring.htm>
To register go to
<http://azriparian.org/2009/registration.htm>